Consumer/Personal Bankruptcy Services Now Available

by Anthony F. Earle, Esquire*

Issue Number: 2010-08

Are you overwhelmed with consumer/personal debt? Would you like manageable payments that would enable you to take control of your personal finances, or perhaps even no payments at all so that you can completely start over financially? If so, EARLE LAW OFFICES may be able to help.

EARLE LAW OFFICES has served clients for years – and continues to serve clients – by assisting with legal matters relating to personal finances, such as small businesses, real estate investments, domestic relations, trusts and estates, and tax controversies.

Unfortunately, given the downturn in the economy, an ever-increasing number of clients have found themselves in need of the protections which are available through the U.S. Bankruptcy Code. In order to serve those clients and meet their need for legal services, EARLE LAW OFFICES has added consumer/personal bankruptcy to the repertoire of legal services which we offer.

Please call today to schedule your confidential, attorney-client privileged consultation regarding a personal bankruptcy or other legal matter.

Earle Law Offices provides trial and appellate litigation, as well as non-litigation, legal services in the areas of bankruptcy, business law, constitutional and civil rights law, family law, real estate law, tax law, and trusts and estates.

* Mr. Earle is licensed to practice law in all California state trial and appellate courts, the United States Supreme Court, the United States Court of Appeals for the Fourth and Ninth Circuits, federal trial courts in the Northern District of California, and the United States Tax Court. He has served as a Judge Pro Tempore for the Santa Clara Superior Court, and is also a licensed Real Estate Broker.

Mr. Earle received his law degree from the Santa Clara University School of Law, where he served as an Editor of the school's Law Review, and where he received awards for academic excellence. He received his undergraduate degree, with honors, in business administration from the University of La Verne.
